

NORTH AYRSHIRE WATERMILL SURVEY

Name of mill: Dennyholm

Date visited: 23.7.10

Address: Kilbirnie

Surveyed by: Alastair Weir

Grid ref: NS317542

Present use: Site of the mill is now residential housing. On the 1st edition OS it is shown as a linen, yarn and thread mill. Shown also, adjacent to the mill, is a footbridge across the River Garnock which leads to a 'Bleachground'.

The mill has been comprehensively recorded by RCAHMS.

Water source: Weir and what was most probably an underground lade.

Photographs taken: Yes of the weir.

Notes: More local history research required.
